Three noteworthy and meaningful moments occurred around the Lord's table in the Upper Room: A meal, representing love, fellowship, and unity; Footwashing, representing service; and Communion, representing the body and blood of Christ. All were critical components to the work and message of Jesus. Today we examine the significance of the meal.

THREE SCRIPTURAL TABLES WE ARE FAMILIAR WITH:

1. _____ Table with _____

Exodus 12:3 NIV

Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb for his family, one for each household.

2. _____ Table with _____

Jude 12 NIV

These people are blemishes at your love feasts, eating with you without the slightest qualm—shepherds who feed only themselves. They are clouds without rain, blown along by the wind; autumn trees, without fruit and uprooted—twice dead.

3. _____ Table with _____

Revelation 19:9 NIV

Then the angel said to me, "Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!" And he added, "These are the true words of God."

CHALLENGE: Consider some meals that you look forward to attending – perhaps certain celebrations that are traditions from year to year. What makes them special? Who makes them special? What does it mean to you to have people you can dine with, with whom you share a sense of commonality? How does that affect how you see the other important meals we find in scripture, like Love Feast and the Marriage Supper of the Lamb?
