Last week we laid a foundation that reminds us of the importance of truly trying to understand God and how He works, which of course can only be done with proper study and connection with Him. Understanding His desire for our good helps us to understand why sometimes He must answer prayer in ways that don't exactly match our preferences.

GOD'S ANSWERS TO PRAYER:

____: It's not the _____, or God has _____.

____: Your request is within the parameters of _____.

____: _____, but _____.

HOW DO WE KNOW WHAT GOD'S ANSWERS ARE?

1. Rare _____

2. _____ or _____

3. _____ or _____ Revelation from _____

4. _____ or _____ Revelation from _____

CHALLENGE: Your job this week is to read Psalm 119. It's very long, but taking some time each night brings it to a workable 25-26 verses per night. As you read it, make a list of all the benefits we can find in a regular regimen of studying God's Word.
