As we reflect on Palm Sunday and the beginning of the final week of Jesus' life, we return to the Upper Room once more. The meal, representing unity and love, had been eaten. The feet had been washed, representing in a small way the life-giving sacrifice Jesus was about to bless us with. One thing remained: to leave behind tokens of remembrance in the form of broken bread and the cup of the new covenant. The very next day, Jesus would be crucified. Yes, he lives again, but His death deserves our contemplation. How can we still honor Him today?

Jesus demonstrated His love in three unprecedented expressions:

1. Unprecedented _____

- His _____ was _____.
- This would be the _____ until _____.

2. Unprecedented _____

- The _____ of _____.
- The _____ of _____.
- A _____ to help us _____ this.

3. Unprecedented _____

- Jesus _____ what was _____.
- He _____.

CHALLENGE: The broken bread and the cup representing Jesus' body and blood reminds us of the new life we have been given. He goes on to give instructions for the church that was about to be established, of which now you are a part. What are your top three goals as you grow in your faith and use your gifts to serve Codorus? What are you ultimately hoping to accomplish?
