Ways to Volunteer

Do you feel God calling you to help your church? We have several ministries looking for volunteers. Contact the ministry leader or the church office for more information. Get involved!

Children's Church: The amazing outreach happens on the 1st Sabbath of each month. This service features fun songs, games, stories, and snacks! Contact Mishael Tolan or Sharlene Fish for more information.

Fellowship Meals: Our monthly potluck happens on the 2nd Sabbath of each month. We need people to assist with set-up, serving, and break-down. For more information contact Sue Hunter or Toni Springer.

Homeless Ministry: This ministry serves between 150 – 220 every Sunday evening at 5:00 PM at the Marion Square Park in downtown Salem. We are looking for people who could prepare and/or serve the meals. Even 1 Sunday a month would help. Contact Kevin Gray.

SACS: Out Salem Adventist Community Service center needs volunteers in many areas, including people to fill orders, someone to keep the clothing room organized, interviewer, and a bookkeeper. Contact Dan Pidoux or Mary Whiteley.

We also need: Pianist, Storytellers, and people for Special Music. Contact the church office for more information.

Today's Sabbath Rest Ends: 8:36 PM ~ Next week it begins at: 8:28 PM
