

Come for Love
Deuteronomy 30:11-20
A Consuming Fire Week 4

“¹⁵ See, I set before you today life and prosperity, death and destruction. ¹⁶ For I command you today to love the Lord your God, to walk in obedience to Him, and to keep His commands, decrees and laws; then you will live and increase, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land you are entering to possess. ¹⁷ But if your heart turns away and you are not obedient, and if you are drawn away to bow down to other gods and worship them, ¹⁸ I declare to you this day that you will certainly be destroyed. You will not live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.” – Deuteronomy 30:15-28 (NIV)

TWO WAYS TO CHOOSE BEFORE THE ISRAELITES:

1. Obedience: _____ and _____.
2. Disobedience: _____.

Sometimes while you are on the _____, it is hard to know if you are on the _____ on.

“² When the young man heard this, he went away sad, because he had great wealth...” – Matthew 19:22 (NIV)

“² Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.” – Romans 12:2 (NIV)

“Obedience teaches trust. Servanthood teaches humility. Surrender teaches authority. These are the signs that affirm God’s will. What else do we need?” – A Consuming Fire

Digging Deeper & Life Application:

- In what ways do we face the same choice between life and death, obedience and disobedience, that the Israelites faced in Deuteronomy 30? How does recognizing this choice change our daily decisions?
- How do small acts of obedience nurture our hunger for God's will and teach us more about His character than occasional grand gestures of faith?
