

Just Come
Psalm 95
A Consuming Fire Week 1

“Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation. ²Let us come before Him with thanksgiving and extol Him with music and song. ³For the Lord is the great God, the great King above all gods. ⁴In His hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to Him. ⁵The sea is His, for He made it, and His hands formed the dry land. ⁶Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker; ⁷for He is our God and we are the people of His pasture, the flock under His care.” Psalm 95:1-7 (NIV)

Digging Deeper & Life Application:

- Have you ever felt like an imposter in God's presence, unworthy or underdressed spiritually? What barriers prevent you from accepting His invitation to 'just come'?
- During this Lenten season, what would it look like for you to intentionally step into God's presence rather than keep Him at a safe distance?
