

THE ONE WITH

<sup>6</sup> While Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon, a man who had a serious skin disease,

Matthew 26:6-13

7 a woman approached Him with an alabaster jar of very expensive fragrant oil. She poured it on His head as He was reclining at the table.

Matthew 26:6-13

<sup>8</sup> When the disciples saw it, they were indignant. “Why this waste?” they asked.

<sup>9</sup> “This might have been sold for a great deal and given to the poor.”

Matthew 26:6-13

<sup>10</sup> But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a noble thing for Me.”

Matthew 26:6-13

<sup>11</sup> “You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me. <sup>12</sup> By pouring this fragrant oil on My body, she has prepared Me for burial.”

Matthew 26:6-13

13 “I assure you: Wherever this gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her.”

Matthew 26:6-13

Matthew 26:6-13

- Bethany (the place)
- Simon – a guy with a “serious skin disease”
- An unnamed lady with an alabaster jar filled with fragrant oil
- The perturbed disciples

I assure you: Wherever this gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her.”

Matthew 26:13

Takeaway #1

Be cautious in “judging” another Christian’s “outlandish” actions for the kingdom.

Takeaway #2

Jesus gave everything for us. He is worthy of our first and our best to Him (our “T<sup>3</sup>”).
