A WORD FROM THE WISE

“Enter through the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the road is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who go through it. How narrow is the gate and difficult the road that leads to life, and few find it.”

Jesus, Matthew 7:13-14

The NARROW gate leading to the NARROW road:

- few people choose it
- the harder road to travel
- it leads to life

The WIDE gate
leading to the WIDE road:

- many people choose it
- the easier road to travel
- it leads to death

The higher the level of commitment,
the fewer the number of people

Financial wisdom tells us to work hard.

Idle hands make one poor, but diligent hands bring riches.

Proverbs 10:4

Financial wisdom tells us to work hard.

The slacker says, "There's a lion outside!
I'll be killed in the public square!"

Proverbs 22:13

Financial wisdom tells us to be generous.

Financial wisdom tells us to be generous.

One person gives freely, yet gains more; another withholds what is right, only to become poor.

Proverbs 11:24

Financial wisdom tells us to be generous.

Honor the Lord with your possessions and with the first produce of your entire harvest; then your barns will be completely filled, and your vats will overflow with new wine.

Proverbs 3:9-10

Financial wisdom tells us to
save for the future.

Financial wisdom tells us to
save for the future.

Precious treasure and oil are in the dwelling of a wise person, but a foolish man consumes them.

Proverbs 21:20

Financial wisdom tells us to
save for the future.

Go to the ant, you slacker! Observe its ways and become wise. Without leader, administrator, or ruler, it prepares its provision in summer; it gathers its food during harvest.

Proverbs 6:6-8

Financial wisdom tells us to spend less than we earn.

The one who loves pleasure will become a poor man; whoever loves wine and oil will not get rich.

Proverbs 21:17

Financial wisdom tells us to get out of debt.

The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is a slave to the lender.

Proverbs 22:7
