Today's Bible Verse

"This is the day the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it." Psalm 118:24

Welcome to PrayerView Community Church Palm Sunday - A Closer Look Sermon Notes:

Today's Scripture: Mark 11:11

Jesus enters Jerusalem and is seemingly accorded his due as David's heir and King of Israel. People's hopes are high. "Save!" they call. He is lauded. Palm branches are waived! Expectations are high. Jesus seems to accept this but does not seem swayed by it. In Zechariah 9:9. Zechariah mentioned the Messiah king, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout Daughter of Jerusalem! See your King comes to you, Righteous and having salvation, Gentle and riding on a donkey On a colt, the foal of a donkey."

In those days in a king came in peace, he would ride on a donkey, not a warhorse. And in this case, not even a full-grown donkey, but a colt. A King coming in peace-most powerful God entering his place in the utmost humility. But what the crowd wants is the Messiah from Zechariah 14:3-4.

"Then the Lord will go out and fight against those nations, as he fights in the day of battle. On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from easter to west forming a great valley, with half of the mountain north and half moving south."

Expectations and reality are on a collision course here. He is NOT what they want, and within a few shorts days, some of these in this joyous exhilarated mob will be shaking not Palm branches but fists and shouting not "Save," but "Crucify!"

Is this not the purpose of Lent? To walk with Jesus through these final days of His work on earth? Can we, these many years later, see what Christ went through as He still took up the cross for us and loved us that much to save us. Jesus still SAVED US!

email as well as a few text messages throughout the week. Each day the goals are designed to help you and others experience God's love in some way. We are praying for you! Let's do this! - Pastor Ken

Prayer for the Day

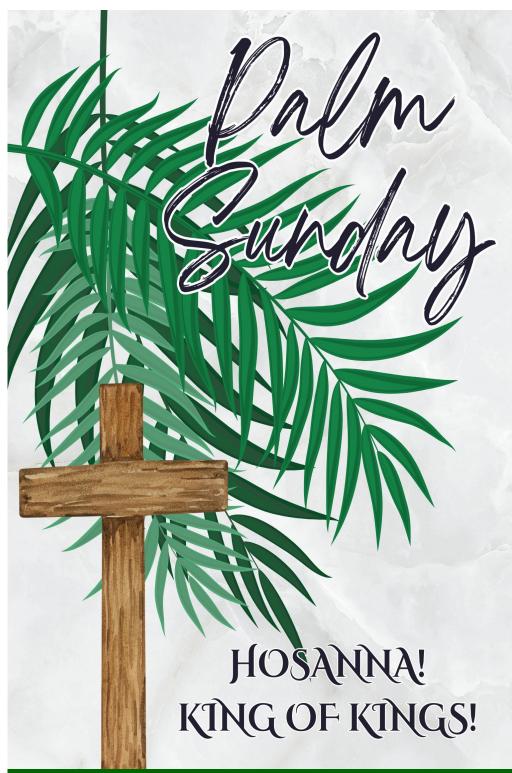

"Dear Lord, during this season of Lent, bring me closer to You. Prepare a place in my heart and home for solitude so that I may rediscover the grace of a prayer-full life. Enlarge my heart so that I re-discover grace and gratitude and generosity. May this season be a time to rekindle my love and faith in You. Amen."

> lf you have any prayer requests, please let Pastor or Linda know.

Hello! My name is Kenneth W. Durst and I am the Pastor here at PrayerView Community Church. Beside me is my beautiful wife Linda. We want to thank you for coming today and warmly welcome you to today's Praise & Worship Service. We are so glad you are here! We believe you are not here by accident. You have been praved for to be here and we believe God brought you here because He has a miracle for you today. Yes, we do believe our God is the same yesterday, today, and forever. And if He did miracles during the past times He still does them today for you and me. We have seen hundreds of people's lives changed by the power of God's touch. And furthermore we have seen people who have been touched, reach out and touch other people making a difference for Jesus in our church, our city, and the world. Today at PrayerView, you will have a great opportunity to meet new people, experience God in an amazing way, and grow spiritually in your life. I hope and pray you are blessed by the service today, and that you will make PrayerView your spiritual home. If you have any questions, prayer requests or if there is anything we can do for you, please do not hesitative to let us know. That is what we are here for! God Bless!
