All The Way! By Mike Stone

Today's Scripture: 1 Corinthians 15:3-25

Today's Article:

I recently read this story of a man who accidentally ran over the Easter Bunny and killed him. A lady stopped to help. She took out a spray can and slowly emptied its contents all over the Easter Bunny. The bunny got up and hopped 5 feet, turned to wave, hopped 5 more feet, turned to wave...and repeated this until he was out of sight.

The can said:

"Restore life to dead hair. Adds permanent wave."

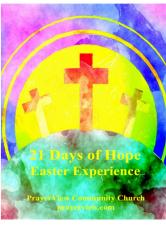

Well, for those who know me, you know I don't care for corny humor. At least I hope you know that about me. But I tell that silly little joke because it makes a point. For a lot of people, their understanding of Easter hardly goes beyond Peter Cottontail, colored eggs, and chocolate bunnies. Their knowledge of all this day means hardly goes beyond a silly story about a woman with a magic spray can. But here in 1 Corinthians 15, arguably the greatest chapter in the Bible on the resurrection. Paul. wants us to know that the real story of Easter involved a lot more than marshmallow Peeps. plastic grass, and a new outfit. The resurrection is the centerpiece of our faith. A risen Savior is the thing that separates Christianity from all other religions. Abraham was the central figure of Judaism. But Father Abraham died and was buried. There are many founders of different religions but each of those died and stayed in their graves.

That is why I will sing for Jesus Christ who died for the sins of His people, buried in His grave, and raised from the dead! That is why I will always sing, "Up from the grave He arose with a mighty triumph o'er His foes!"
