Who Stole My Life?

“The Me I Want to Be”

Talk by Scott Sinner

Welcome

Insecurity Quiz - Pick two of the following that best represents you and share.

1. I am usually pessimistic.
2. I wish I were better looking.
3. I don't think I'm as good as other people.
4. It hurts my feelings when I learn that someone doesn't like me.
5. I often question my abilities and/or personality.
6. I place unrealistic expectations on my relationships.
7. I often wonder what people really think of me.
8. I have a tough time saying no.
9. I tend to be too sensitive.
10. I don't like seeing myself on video or in pictures.

Word

Read Exodus 3:1-15

1. In verse 7, what can we learn about the character of God and our requests of Him?
2. In verse 8, how specific is God's challenge to Moses? What can we learn about the detail in which God calls us?
3. What area of growth do you think God's challenge is addressing in Moses' life?
4. In verses 10 and 11, what insecurities do you think were surfacing in Moses as he responded to God's challenge?
5. When God challenges you to grow, what insecurities do you face?
6. In verses 12-15, what does God promise to Moses?
7. Read the following scriptures to help understand the name I AM and its connection to Jesus: Isaiah 40:28-29; John 5:26; John 8:24; John 8:28,8:58; John 13:19.
8. The name I AM invites us to fill in the blanks for whatever the need is in our life." How does knowing this motivate you to answer God's challenges to grow into "the me I want to be."

Weave

- Break into groups of two or three. Share an area of growth that you feel God has been highlighting in your life. Pray for each other.
- Take some time this week to further study the names of God in scripture.
