Who Stole My Life?

“If You Don’t Talk It Out, You Will Act It Out”

Talk by Scott Sinner

WELCOME

According to Joseph Grenny, a crucial conversation can take place when

- Something important is at stake
- There are differing opinions
- There are high emotions

On a scale of 1 to 10, how well do you tend to handle crucial conversations?

I always tend to fight or flee	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	I always tend to speak openly

WORD

1. Read Ephesians 4:1-3. Point out the words that are used by Paul that illustrate how we should treat one another.
2. Read Ephesians 4:15, 25-26. What is the importance of speaking the truth in love to one another?
3. Read Philippians 4:6. Why does prayer need to be the first place we go to talk about our pending crucial conversation?
4. Read Romans 12:18. In relationship to your crucial conversation, talk about the phrase “as much as it depends on you.”
5. Read Ephesians 4:32. How am I to handle crucial conversations that don’t go well?

WEAVE

This week be aware of a crucial conversation that needs to happen. Don’t let the enemy get a foothold. Talk it out, so you don’t act it out.

- Talk it out with God
- Talk it out with the person one on one
- Talk it out in love
- Talk it out again with God
