

THE BEST GIFTS OF CHRISTMAS

The Gift of Despair

Eric Hoehn

Luke 1:5-25

Main Point

Christmas reminds us that it is in our places of deepest despair that we often receive God's greatest gifts.

Wrapping

This small gift comes wrapped in profound pain

Ribbon

This small gift is tied up with God's certain promises

Contents

This small gift contains God's amazing provision

Summary

We are often drawn to the biggest packages under the tree or to those with the most attractive wrapping. We assume that if it does not look promising on the outside, it must be a stinker on the inside. What if God's best gifts come wrapped in the most unattractive packages.
