

The Story of Abraham

Forgetting God
Genesis 12:10-20
Richard Eng

Observations

- Abraham did not doubt God, he forgot God.
- Abraham's fear led to forgetting God
- When Abraham forgot God, he resorted to his own devices.

"How like Abram we are! Trials come, and we automatically go into survival mode." -
Kent Hughes

Two Fear Responses

- Fear resulting in control.
- Fear resulting in the lack of boundaries.

Two Reminders

- God remains faithful even when we are faithless.
- Spiritual victories can lead to a tendency to forget God.
