Fleshing it Out

Mark 10:1-12

Eric Hoehn

Main Point

For those of us who are married, our willingness to embrace Jesus' mission more fully is most fully fleshed out in our willingness to embrace our one-flesh relationship with our spouse.

Question 1

What's the big deal about marriage?

Question 2

How is my marriage connected to the mission of Jesus?

Question 3

What if I am single?

Summary

We often miss the significance of what is right in front of us... the importance of the mundane, ordinary, everyday stuff. Is our willingness to fully embrace Jesus' mission waiting to be formed in the fires of some unknown future crucible or is that crucible closer to home?
