

REVELATION 22:6-21

GETTING STARTED...

If you could choose, what would you want your last words to be? Final words carry with them a particular weight and emphasis, sometimes showing how a person has reflected upon their life. The final words of the Bible are no less important. They not only wrap up the story of the Bible, but they do so while giving us a hope for the future. These are the final words of the risen Jesus, the last words of God's inspired Scripture, the final reminder before the return of Christ and we see him face to face. For those reasons alone they are important, and yet even more so, they contain a reminder of the gospel message, both in warning and in the promise. A blessing for those who read this message, who hear this message and a call to look forward to the day when we will see Jesus. The final words are both a prayer and a reminder, that Jesus is coming soon. Come, Lord Jesus!

READ THE TEXT: REVELATION 22:6-21

⁶ And he said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true. And the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must soon take place."

⁷ "And behold, I am coming soon. Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

⁸ I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me, ⁹ but he said to me, "You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."

filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do right, and the holy still be holy.”

¹² “Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense with me, to repay each one for what he has done. ¹³ I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.”

¹⁴ Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life and that they may enter the city by the gates.

¹⁵ Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

¹⁶ “I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you about these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star.”

¹⁷ The Spirit and the Bride say, “Come.” And let the one who hears say, “Come.” And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who desires take the water of life without price.

¹⁸ I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book, ¹⁹ and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

²⁰ He who testifies to these things says, “Surely I am coming soon.” Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

²¹ The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all. Amen.

UNDERSTANDING THE WORD

1. How many times is there an invitation to “come” in this final section? Why do you think John is emphasizing this so much? How does his audience help us understand his point?
2. Verse 11 is a confusing verse, why does it say to “let the evildoer still do evil”? Does this mean we shouldn’t call people to refrain from doing evil? Or that we shouldn’t share our faith? How does verses 12-15 help us understand this one?

REFLECTING ON THE SERMON

3. What was the main point of the sermon?
4. What has God been impressing on your heart from the sermon?

APPLYING THE POINT

5. How do we put this into practice?

Agassiz How do you know that you can trust the words of the Bible?
How does the promise of Christ's coming soon change how we live today?

Chilliwack How do you respond to the idea that Jesus is "coming soon?" What difference does it make in your day to day life, the challenges you face, or your witness to others?

Harrison & Lake Errock How are you living expectantly of Jesus' coming return?
How can you live more expectantly this week?

Promontory In light of Jesus' imminent return how should we live? What difference should it make on our life?

PRAYING & SHARING

1. How can you share what you have learned with... another believer? An unbeliever?
2. Share and pray for one another in your life group. How can you specifically pray for and encourage one another in response to this text?

How to Use this Guide

This guide is intended to help facilitate Central Life Groups as they meet to understand the Bible passage, discuss the sermon, and how to put it into practice in our lives. What is contained in this guide is not an exhaustive text analysis nor a full list of questions that can or should be asked during Life Group. This is simply a guide to help start conversations that are centered on the Word of God.

The Life Group Guide is separated into three main sections that are arranged with an intentional order: Understanding the Word, Reflecting on the Sermon, and Applying the Point. We want to first understand the Word of God, and then check that understanding by what has been preached, and then discuss how to put it into practice in our own lives. The order is intended to imitate the process of how the Word of God makes changes in our lives. Head, heart, hands, and all of it wrapped in prayer.

While the meaning of a text doesn't change, the way that we are called to apply it may look different from campus to campus, and even person to person. To reflect this distinction, you will see application questions from each campus in this guide. Start with the question(s) from your campus and then look at others to see if they are helpful for your group. You may be surprised how similar or different they end up being and how the diversity brings a fuller understanding to how we can apply the Word of God.

Our goal is not that you answer every question in this guide, but that you are able to discuss the Word of God in a way that helps everyone follow Jesus together!

studied by all who delight in them." - Psalm 111:2*
