The Journey Begins

The lessons you're about to engage are meant to help strengthen your biblical knowledge, understanding, and application. Studying the culture, land, language, and other background information will produce a broader and deeper understanding of what Scripture is saying to you. These lessons are intended to help provide that for you.

The format of these lessons is built on the following five questions that will help you explore the biblical author's intent, your perspective as a modern reader, and how the Holy Spirit can apply it to you. In order to gain a fuller understanding of Scripture, you should ask:

1. What did this Scripture mean to the original author and audience?
2. What does this Scripture mean to me today?
3. How can this Scripture apply to my life?
4. How does this Scripture deepen my love for God?
5. How can I demonstrate this Scripture to my family and those around me?

These questions are the foundation for every lesson, which is divided into four sections: The Author's Lens, My Lens, The Holy Spirit's Lens, and Upward and Outward Focus. The sections will encourage you to wrestle with the text and discover a deeper biblical understanding that will allow you to rightly apply what you've learned. If you have a Fire Bible®: English Standard Version, there is also a section that allows you to engage with it.

The lessons utilize several resources to provide you with an in-depth study. While it is not required to have all of them, for the most optimal study experience we recommend using the following:

- Fire Bible®: English Standard Version
- Journal
- Colored Pencils
- Fine Point Pen

The ultimate goal of these lessons is to equip you to ascertain what the Holy Spirit and God's Word is saying to you. To do that, it's recommended that you work slowly and methodically through this deep dive into the Scripture.

For Group Leaders

If you intend to use this material in a group format, below are some tips to help you better utilize these lessons in that setting.

- Determine who will be the group leader. The leader will be responsible for making copies, coordinating meeting times, and facilitating discussions.
- The group leader should select individuals to read aloud The Author's Lens and My Lens sections.
- Before each session, the group leader should read through the questions in The Holy Spirit's Lens section. Many lessons have more content than can be covered in one session, so the leader may choose to engage only some of the questions or assign group members to work through them before arrival.
- If your group is very large, dividing into groups of three or four people is the best way to work through selected questions from The Holy Spirit's Lens for thirty to forty minutes. These groups should also commit to work together throughout the week.
- After you've divided into smaller groups, bring the entire group back together to discuss a few of the selected questions from The Holy Spirit's Lens for ten to fifteen minutes.
- Finally, the leader is responsible to hold group members accountable for completing the Scripture reading before each session and for writing in their journals.
