

1 Peter 1:22-2:3

Getting Started

Think about the last time you were really hungry. What food did you crave the most?

Discussion

What stood out from this past weekend's sermon?

V. 23 is the second time Peter uses a phrase that is popular in Christian circles, "born again" (see. 1:3). How would you explain that to someone who has no religious background? Is it primarily an identity or a calling (or both)?

How does the good news affect those with whom you have relationships? If you took Jesus out of your life, what would your relationships look like? Would others notice a difference?

In what ways are you dissatisfied with how you read or how you are changed by reading Scripture?

What stands out to you from the list of vices in 2:1? Are these mostly attitudes of heart or actions?

As you go

Meditate on Psalm 16 this week. Read it, re-read it, write down a verse or chunk that stands out to you, ask the Holy Spirit to speak to you about what is on his heart for you from that verse. And ask him, "what keeps me from a longing for God above all else? Allow him to reveal if there is a habit or a lie that must be uprooted in your life.

Prayer

Pray for any needs anyone has and share any ways that God has shown up in your life.

Pray for more spiritual hunger. If there are those in the Group that are particularly challenged by the call to "crave or long for or eagerly desire" God and the things of God, lay hands on them and ask God to pour out that hunger in their lives
