

Your Most Powerful Weapon

James 3:1-18

We need to understand and respect the power of our words.

Your words affect both you and others.

Your words can be both negative and positive.

You decide.

Words have directional power and destructive power.

The solution: Wisdom as displayed in good conduct and meekness.

The problem: Jealousy and selfish ambition.

The purpose of your words is to bring peace.

Matthew 15:18
