

Series: "Firsthand" by Ryan and Josh Shook

Sermon: "Disturb us, Lord"

Primary Text: Ephesians 2:8-10

Discussion Guide:

- What is the first thing that comes to mind when you hear the word "Disturbance"?
- What is the difference between a worldly disturbance or a divine disturbance?
- In the sermon we said that a divine disturbance is meant to help you see what really matters so that you can do things that really matter.
 - How is this true?
- What are some biblical examples of divine examples? Any observations?
- What are some examples in your own lives or lives around you? Any observations?
- How and why is the divine disturbance always going to call you out of your comfort zone?
- In the sermon it was said that the comfort zone is the enemy of God's plans and the ally of the devil's schemes - how is this true or not true?
- What is a disturbance of conversion? (see Acts 9:1-19)
- What is a disturbance of conscience? (see 2 Samuel 12:1-15)
- What is a disturbance of compassion? (see Matthew 9:26ff, 14:14ff, 15:32ff)
- What are some other categories of divine disturbances?
- What does it mean to "embrace the disturbance"?
- Why and how is the point of the divine disturbance to "do something"? (See Ephesians 2:8-10; James 2:17)
