Summer Sermon Series: Oh, The Places You'll Go

Join us for our summer sermon series, 'Oh, The Places You'll Go,' as we journey through the most iconic landscapes of Scripture. From quiet gardens and remote mountains to bustling cities and lakesides, these ancient locations are more than just dots on a map. They are the backdrops of faith, courage, and grace. Discover how these places speak to our lives today and remind us that wherever we go, God goes with us.

Prayer of Confession

Meg Kilcoyne

Faithful Lord,
we confess that we are quick to trust ourselves
and slow to trust You.
When life becomes uncertain,
we give in to fear instead of faith.
When the waters grow rough,
we lose sight of Your presence.
We have allowed worry to shape our decisions,
discouragement to weaken our hope,
and doubt to quiet our witness.
Forgive us for the times we have forgotten
that You are with us in every season.
Strengthen our faith,
steady our hearts,
and teach us to follow wherever You lead.
Hear us as we pray...
