

GALATIANS

THE GOSPEL OF GRACE

Gal 3:6-7

“just as Abraham "believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness"? 7
Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham.”

Gal 4:21-22

“Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not listen to the law?”

Gal 2:19 “For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God.”

Gal 5:4 “You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace.”

That is what :

4:21 “You who desire to be under the law” means.

Gal 4:21-31 “Tell me, you who desire to be under law, do you not hear the law? For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave and one by a free woman. But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, the son of the free woman through promise. Now this is an allegory: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar. Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. For it is written,

(Is 54:1) "Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear; break forth and shout, you who are not in travail; for the children of the desolate one are many more than the children of her that is married." Now we, brethren, like Isaac, are children of promise. But as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so it is now. But what does the scripture say? "Cast out the slave and her son; for the son of the slave shall not inherit with the son of the free woman." So, brethren, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman."

Freedom

1 John 2:17 “And the world (sky-diving sinner) is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever.”

Gal 4:21 "Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not listen to the law"?

V22-23 "It is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman and one by a free woman. But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, the son of the free woman through promise."

Gen 16:15 "Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram called the name of his son whom Hagar bore to him Ishmael."

V17–19 "Abraham fell on his face and laughed and said to himself, 'Shall a child be born to a man who is a hundred years old? Shall Sarah who is ninety years old bear a child?' And Abraham said to God, 'O, that Ishmael might live in thy sight!' God said, 'No, but Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.'"

Gen 21:1-2 “Now the Lord was gracious to Sarah as he had said, and the Lord did for Sarah what he had promised. 2 Sarah became pregnant and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the very time God had promised him.”

Gal 4:23-24

“But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, while the son of the free woman was born through promise. 24 Now this may be interpreted allegorically: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar.”

Ex 24:3 and Dt 5:27 "All the words which the Lord has spoken we will do"

Heb 4:2 "For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened."

Deut 29:4 "But to this day the Lord has not given you a heart to understand or eyes to see or ears to hear."

Gal 4:24-25

“Now this may be interpreted allegorically: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar. Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.”

Gal 4:26-27

“But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. 27 For it is written,
"Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear; break forth and cry aloud, you who are not in labor! For the children of the desolate one will be more than those of the one who has a husband."

Col 3:1–3 "If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on the earth. For you have died and your life is hid with Christ in God."

Gal 4:28-31

Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. 29 But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. 30 But what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman." 31 So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman.
