

If your eyes are fixed and focused on the cross, you can't be distracted or blinded by the world.

God gave us the Holy Spirit in order to unite us, but our discussions about the Holy Spirit have actually divided us.

Many people believe in Jesus, but their lives show no real power.

Faith in the Gospel is how you escape the penalty of sin. But it's also how you get power over sin.

You can't play it safe and please God.
Faith does not require a guarantee.
You can't have control and have faith.
Faith steps out of the familiar.

LifeGroup Discussion Questions

Read Galatians chapter 3.

- Why do you think it is so easy for people to be easily distracted or blinded by the world that they take their eyes off the cross?
- What is one area of your life where it is hard to stay focused on Jesus?
- Describe how you feel or what you think about when someone mentions the Holy Spirit.
- What is something that you have control over in your life? Why is it so hard for you to give up control?
- As we enter the BEYOND season, discuss in your group some ways you can take a step of faith?
