

Forcing yourself to obey laws can change your behavior, but it will never change your heart.

Being justified makes us right before God the judge. Being adopted proves we are loved by God the Father.

Jesus chose to redeem you and He died to rescue you.

LifeGroup Discussion Questions

- What comfort should a child feel and experience from his/her parents?
- What was your relationship like with your parents? (Distant, close, loving, formal, personal, taxing, etc....)
- How does your relationship with your parents influence your view of God as father and you as son/daughter?

Read Galatians 3:23-4:6

- How does someone become a son (or daughter) of God?
- What does it mean that God has adopted you?
- Read Galatians 3:27. In which area of your life do you most struggle to remember that you're clothed with Christ?
- Read Galatians 3:28. What barriers divide people in the area where you live?
- In what ways do you act like a slave who is afraid of God instead of a child who is assured of the Father's love?