

Jesus Exalted as Lord and Christ (Acts 2:33-36) 1/29/2023

Review

Peter's first point was that the many _____ performed by our Lord provide overwhelming _____ that He is who He claimed to be. Next, he asserted that God used evil men to accomplish His _____, yet never violated their will or removed their _____ by doing so. His third point was that _____ raised Jesus from the dead.

The resurrection of Jesus Christ proves beyond a doubt His _____ and establishes His messianic _____. God had to give His _____ and take the action of receiving Christ as our _____. It was natural that any _____ in Jesus as Messiah should look to _____ words to make sense of these claims.

Peter's point is that only through _____ from the dead could a son of David rule _____ over God's people.

The Exalted Jesus Receives and Gives the Promise (v. 33)

Having been exalted (hypsos) =

Promise (epangelia) =

God the _____ gave God the Holy Spirit as a gift to God the _____ so that He could then give the Holy Spirit to the _____!

Other passages that refer to this promise:

What the Pentecost crowd could see and hear were signs of Jesus' _____ to the situation of absolute glory, power, and _____ in the universe.

Jesus' Exaltation Is Just as King David Said it Would Be (vv. 34-35)

The LORD (YHWH) =

My Lord (adonai) =

Jesus' exaltation to the Father's _____ was the fulfillment of the prophecy, and it indicated that Jesus had begun to _____ as the God-man.

Enemies (echthros) =

Notes on what it means to be a footstool for Your feet:

Teaching about the resurrection of Jesus is _____ if it does not incorporate His heavenly exaltation and eternal _____.

God the Father will personally see to it that those in _____ to Jesus will pay the price and be forced to _____ to Him.

Peter's Sermon Summary (v. 36)

Know for certain (asphalos) =

Lord (kurios) =

God the Father made Jesus not only your _____, but He also made Him your _____.

Peter has provided overwhelming _____ from Jesus' life, death, resurrection, and _____ that He is Israel's long-awaited Messiah.

Jesus came to be both _____ and _____, not one or the other.

God the Father will force into _____ the adversaries of the One whom He Himself _____.