

Review

Notes on the key points of the first part of Paul's speech in Athens:

Now Is the Time to Repent (vv. 29-30)

In _____ terms God is the Father only of those who are in Christ, and we are His children only by adoption and grace, but in _____ terms God is the Father of all humankind, and all are His _____, His creatures, receiving their _____ from Him.

Paul proves that their gods are _____ by the ability of the men who made them.

Idolatry can take many _____, both intellectually (with false ideas about God) and _____ (with the worship of created things rather than the Creator).

John Stott says that idolatry is the attempt either to 1) _____, 2) _____, 3) _____, or 4) _____ God.

All idolatry tries to minimize the _____ between the Creator and His creatures, in order to bring Him under our _____.

overlooked \(hyperorao\) =

ignorance \(agnoia\) =

It is not that God was not _____ of their sin, but that in His forbearing mercy He did not visit upon it the _____ it deserved.

repent \(metanoeo\) =

The only way to be reconciled to the God that we have all _____ by embracing false gods and treating Him like a man-made idol is to _____.

Divine Judgment (v. 31)

The reason all people need to _____ is because this same God who began all things will bring all things to a _____ with a day of judgment.

fixed \(histemi\) =

God's judging will be done without _____ or any hint of sin; it will be totally impartial and _____.

Cross references on righteous judgment:

God has the absolute right to delegate the judgment of the world to _____.

The key point Paul is driving toward is that the judge over the earth will be a _____, not another god.

God the Father made it clear that turning _____ over to Jesus was His intention by raising Him from the _____.

God has provided, or furnished, all the _____ and evidence the world needs to be assured that Jesus will be their _____.

Heeding the Message (vv. 32-34)

sneer \(chleuazo\) =

Notes on the conclusion and results of Paul's speech on Mars Hill:

Paul's speech on Mars Hill has all the _____ features of a dialogue with an unbeliever that is distinctly Christian and _____.