

The Second Missionary Journey Begins (Acts 15:36-16:5) 5/4/25

Introduction

Review of key details of the Jerusalem Council:

Paul's ministry had been _____ by the controversy with the legalists and his visit to _____.

The Missionary Team Splits into Two (vv. 36-41)

Paul proposes to _____ that they go back to all the cities that they went to on the _____ Missionary Journey.

Paul's motive was clearly very _____.

Paul understood that the ultimate priority in evangelism is _____.

Barnabas wanted to give John Mark another opportunity to _____ himself.

Notes on Paul's opposition to John Mark:

After John Mark's earlier failure, Paul had no _____ in him.

sharp disagreement (paroxysmos) =

separated from one another (apochorizo) =

Luke does not pass _____ on either party, but indicates that good came out of the separation, with _____ missionary teams forming as a result.

Notes on the future work of Barnabas and John Mark:

Silas was in every respect a _____ man for missionary work. Notes:

committed (paradidomi) =

As the church at Antioch sent them off, they _____ Paul and Silas to the only thing that was sure and secure, which was the _____ of God.

Paul and Silas Gain a Valuable Assistant (vv. 1-5)

From southern Galatia, they would have crossed the _____ Taurus Mountains, passing through the famous, strategic Cilician _____.

Notes on Timothy:

Paul obviously saw the _____ in Timothy and recruited him to join he and Silas in their missionary work.

Notes on the potential benefits and risks to Timothy:

Paul persuaded him, and Timothy _____, to be circumcised.

Notes on Paul's principles expressed in 1 Corinthians 9:19-23:

By Jewish law Timothy was a _____, because he was the son of a Jewish mother, but he was technically an _____ because he was uncircumcised. Paul delivered the council's _____ and urged the believers in these churches to _____ to and begin practicing these requirements.

strengthened (stereo) =

Strong churches, established in the faith, will _____ their numbers.