

Background Information

In the four lists of apostles, the fifth one named on every list is _____.

People who adopted _____ language, culture, and customs were called Hellenists, and it is very likely that Philip came from a family of Hellenistic Jews. The apostle Philip was from the town of Bethsaida, the same hometown of _____ and _____.

Piecing together all the apostle John records about him, it seems Philip was a _____ person.

His Calling

Passage: John 1:43-46

Philip was the first person to hear and obey the words, “_____.”

As far as Philip was concerned, he had found the _____ rather than being found by Him.

Philip not only had a seeking heart, but he also had the heart of a personal _____.

Sometimes people are saved upon hearing the gospel from a stranger, but most often, the Lord uses relationships built on _____ and _____.

Philip _____ received Jesus as the Messiah, revealing the degree to which the Lord had prepared his heart.

Philip was not usually a very _____ person.

The Feeding of the 5,000

Passage: John 6:5-7

Though he had followed Christ without hesitation when He called him, Philip was more often seen in Scripture as a man of _____.

Background Information

In the four lists of apostles, the fifth one named on every list is _____.

People who adopted _____ language, culture, and customs were called Hellenists, and it is very likely that Philip came from a family of Hellenistic Jews. The apostle Philip was from the town of Bethsaida, the same hometown of _____ and _____.

Piecing together all the apostle John records about him, it seems Philip was a _____ person.

His Calling

Passage: John 1:43-46

Philip was the first person to hear and obey the words, “_____.”

As far as Philip was concerned, he had found the _____ rather than being found by Him.

Philip not only had a seeking heart, but he also had the heart of a personal _____.

Sometimes people are saved upon hearing the gospel from a stranger, but most often, the Lord uses relationships built on _____ and _____.

Philip _____ received Jesus as the Messiah, revealing the degree to which the Lord had prepared his heart.

Philip was not usually a very _____ person.

The Feeding of the 5,000

Passage: John 6:5-7

Though he had followed Christ without hesitation when He called him, Philip was more often seen in Scripture as a man of _____.

Philip was apparently the apostolic _____.

Jesus was testing Philip so that he would reveal to _____ what he was like.

When he saw the crowd, he began to be overwhelmed by the _____.

One of the most basic essentials of leadership is a sense of _____.

The Visit of the Greeks

Passage: John 12:20-21

These God-fearing Gentiles approached Philip to arrange a meeting with _____.

In Matt. 10:5-6 and 15:24, Jesus was simply stating the _____ priority of His ministry, not a rule of law.

People like Philip don't appreciate general _____.

It seems Philip didn't want anyone to fault him for not going by the _____.

The Upper Room

Passage: John 14:1-11

Of all the foolish, hasty, painfully ignorant statements made by the disciples, probably none was more _____ than Philip's remark in the Upper Room.

Jesus was stating in the clearest possible terms that He is _____.

The disciples had both seen Christ and known Him, so in actuality, they already knew the _____, as well.

Philip's earthbound _____, his focus on the _____, his skepticism, his obsession with _____, his preoccupation with business matters, and his small-mindedness had shut him off from a full comprehension of the One whose presence he had enjoyed.

Philip was slow to understand, slow to _____, and slow to see beyond the immediate _____.

Philip was apparently the apostolic _____.

Jesus was testing Philip so that he would reveal to _____ what he was like.

When he saw the crowd, he began to be overwhelmed by the _____.

One of the most basic essentials of leadership is a sense of _____.

The Visit of the Greeks

Passage: John 12:20-21

These God-fearing Gentiles approached Philip to arrange a meeting with _____.

In Matt. 10:5-6 and 15:24, Jesus was simply stating the _____ priority of His ministry, not a rule of law.

People like Philip don't appreciate general _____.

It seems Philip didn't want anyone to fault him for not going by the _____.

The Upper Room

Passage: John 14:1-11

Of all the foolish, hasty, painfully ignorant statements made by the disciples, probably none was more _____ than Philip's remark in the Upper Room.

Jesus was stating in the clearest possible terms that He is _____.

The disciples had both seen Christ and known Him, so in actuality, they already knew the _____, as well.

Philip's earthbound _____, his focus on the _____, his skepticism, his obsession with _____, his preoccupation with business matters, and his small-mindedness had shut him off from a full comprehension of the One whose presence he had enjoyed.

Philip was slow to understand, slow to _____, and slow to see beyond the immediate _____.