

False Doctrines Divide Paul's Enemies (Acts 23:6-10) 8/2/26

Review

The chief priests and the _____ (Sanhedrin) were the highest Jewish religious and _____ authorities.

Paul felt no _____ for anything he had done, in spite of their accusations that he was undermining the Law and Jewish _____.

The Differences between Sadducees and Pharisees (v. 6a)

Notes on the Sadducees:

Socially:

Theologically:

A person who does not believe that there is _____ has little motive for living any way other than how he _____.

Notes on the Pharisees:

Paul Exploits the Doctrinal Divisions of His Enemies (vv. 6b-9)

resurrection (anastasis) =

Old Testament cross references:

The body, according to the Bible, is not the _____ of our humanness.

Every person is _____ and _____.

The body is the _____ person; the soul is the _____ person.

While the body is referred to as being either strong or _____, the soul is consistently spoken of in distinctly _____ terms.

The question we must ask is, "What makes up a _____?"

As long as our soul is _____ to our body, then our body _____ our soul, and our soul affects our body.

The soul _____ with the time/space dimension we exist in through the body.

A physical problem may strongly _____ a spiritual reaction in a person, but it can never be an excuse or _____ for bad, sinful behavior.

To remove _____ responsibility from a person by blaming the _____ would be to treat them as less than human and rob them of _____ for change.

dissention (stasis) =

divided (schizo) =

uproar (krauge) =

Paul Is Rescued from the Uproar He Created (v. 10)

The commander's _____ was based on Paul's Roman citizenship and his duty to _____ him.

Notes on what the two groups were doing to Paul:

Our sovereign God used the _____ commander and the Jewish rulers' commitment to false doctrines to _____ Paul's life from his enemies.