

Paul Recounts His Conversion (Acts 22:6-11)

6/7/26

Review

Notes on the chain of events that took place when Paul entered the Temple:

The commander himself took _____ of the situation, and in so doing fulfilled the _____ given by the Holy Spirit to Paul.

Paul requests that the commander halt his _____ so that he could speak openly to the Jewish people who were _____ against him.

Paul shows that he knows and understands from _____ experience the fears and _____ which had sparked the riot in the first place.

Such was Paul's _____ that the highest Jewish authorities chose him for the mission of _____, and imprisoning the Christians.

The points of Paul's opening _____ to these fellow Jews was to prove that at one point he had been just as _____ and passionate about stopping _____ as they are right now.

Jesus' Authoritative Intervention (vv. 6-7)

Notes on the lead up to Saul's encounter with Jesus:

suddenly (exaiphnes) =

flashed around (periastrapto) =

Repeating Saul's name was a matter of emphasis marking a _____ of Saul, and intended to bring _____ of soul, so Saul would realize how wrong he had been, and _____ would overwhelm him.

persecuting (dioko) =

Jesus equates persecuting the _____ with persecuting _____.

Paul's Surrender to Christ (vv. 8-11)

Lord (kurios) =

Notes on Jesus' response, "I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.":

God always initiates the contact in _____.

Notes on the experience of the men traveling with Saul:

did not understand (akouo) =

Notes on John 10:3-5:

The question in salvation is not whether Jesus is _____, but whether we are submissive to His _____.

The Lord Jesus informs Saul from this point on, he will be _____ what to do.
has been appointed (tasso) =

Saul's entry into Damascus was very different than what he had _____.

During his _____, God led Saul through the process of _____ everything he was and did.