The tithe was not _____ for anyone in Israel.

God's system of fairness involves _____ giving.

The richest person in Israel gave _____%.

The poorest person in Israel gave _____%.

In good, bountiful years, God's people were required to give _____%.

In bad, lean years, God's people were required to give _____%.

Tithing robbed no man; it was _____ to rich and poor alike.

The Old Testament tithe was basically a _____ paid to God, the _____ of everything, including the land.

The Concept of Firstfruits

This means that the first of everything was _____ to God.

_____ for the Feast of Firstfruits began long before the actual celebration.

The Lord's acceptance of the Firstfruits offering was an 'earnest', or _____ of the full harvest.

Scripture shows the following 'first' things as set aside to God:

Firstfruits are given as a sign that one _____ God to provide the remainder.

God deserves and demands the first and _____, not the last and _____.

God gave the example by setting aside His best—His _____—for us.
