

Peace and Light (John 8:12; 14:27)

12/28/25

Introductory notes:

Light in the Darkness (John 8:12)

Notes on the context found in John 7:1-2, 10-11, 14:

The Feast of _____ is the most joyful and festive of all Israel's feasts.

The English word "_____" is from the Latin tabernaculum meaning "booth" or "hut."

Because of the _____ associated with the Feast of Booths, it became the _____ of Israel's feasts.

It was during the Feast of Booths that Solomon dedicated the newly built _____ to the Lord.

Notes on 2 Chronicles 5:3; 7:1-3, 8-10:

Notes on the Temple Lighting Ceremony:

The Lighting Ceremony was so spectacular that it _____ them of the descent of the Shekinah _____ in Solomon's day and looked forward to the _____ of the Shekinah in the days of the Messiah.

It was the day _____ the Feast of Booths (the 8th day), which was considered a sabbath, when Jesus returned from the Mount of Olives to _____ in the Temple.

Scriptural titles that associate light with the Messiah:

Jesus Himself is the _____ of all light that leads to life!

Peace in the Darkness (John 14:27)

Jesus' words on peace were spoken during the Feast of _____.

Passover =

Notes on the events leading up to the first Passover:

Every Passover celebration since the first one has been a _____ reminding the Jews of that first Passover night.

This holiday forms the primary _____ for understanding the events of the Upper Room, the _____ of the Lord's Table, and the meaning of the Messiah's _____.

Notes on the meaning of Passover:

The Passover sacrifice is what brought _____ between God and the person who made the offering.

The annual Passover celebration declared this: Just like the _____ Passover lambs provided a way for men and women to be at _____ with God, another sacrificial _____ would one day come who would sacrifice Himself so that men and women can be permanently at _____ with God!
peace \(eirene\) =

Peace with God comes from removing the cause of conflict between us...our _____.