

Introduction

The Psalms assist in putting _____ on the _____ of Scripture

The Psalms use poetry and music to vividly express how we connect _____ circumstances with the _____ of God.

Commitment of a Worshiper (1-2)

Worship is a _____ that believers should _____ to do in every circumstance.

A true worshiper not only resolves to worship the Lord _____, but to worship Him _____ with a sincere heart.

tell =

True worship is motivated by the _____ of God, and the _____ of God.

Motivation of a Worshiper (3-10)

(1) Providence of God (Enemies are Temporary)

God's _____ is displayed to David as he is delivered time and time again from his enemies, and this _____ to praise and worship.

(2) Attributes of God (God is Eternal)

equity =

God's _____ is displayed to David through His justice and compassion for the oppressed, and this _____ to praise and worship.

Characteristics of Worshiper (11-16)

(1) Corporate Worship

gates =

daughter of Zion =

requires blood =

Worship is not only a _____ matter, but a _____ one, that is carried out with the people of God.

(2) Personal Worship

Worship is not only a _____ matter, but a _____ one, that is carried out between God and the individual.

Instead of taking _____ vengeance, Christians should allow God's _____ means to bring about judgment upon the wicked.

(3) Future Hope

There will be a day when the wicked will be _____ and the righteous will be _____.