

Setting the Context

Faith =

Hebrews 11:6 tells us that without faith it is impossible to _____ God.

We also learn that genuine faith in God requires us to believe the following:

1. That God _____.
2. That He _____ those who _____ seek Him.

Joseph's Betrothal to Mary

Things Scripture tells us about Joseph:

The betrothal period was a _____, binding contract that _____ marriage.

Notes on the betrothal period:

Notes on the actual wedding:

All of these details about Joseph and Mary's betrothal and Mary's virginity are extremely important to establish Jesus' _____.

The virgin birth is central to the fact that Jesus was fully _____ and fully human, but absent the _____.

Joseph's Righteous Character

Joseph was a righteous Jew, meaning he was a true Old Testament _____.

Setting the Context

Faith =

Hebrews 11:6 tells us that without faith it is impossible to _____ God.

We also learn that genuine faith in God requires us to believe the following:

1. That God _____.
2. That He _____ those who _____ seek Him.

Joseph's Betrothal to Mary

Things Scripture tells us about Joseph:

The betrothal period was a _____, binding contract that _____ marriage.

Notes on the betrothal period:

Notes on the actual wedding:

All of these details about Joseph and Mary's betrothal and Mary's virginity are extremely important to establish Jesus' _____.

The virgin birth is central to the fact that Jesus was fully _____ and fully human, but absent the _____.

Joseph's Righteous Character

Joseph was a righteous Jew, meaning he was a true Old Testament _____.

This righteous man must have been _____ to learn that the woman he was about to marry carried a child who wasn't his.

If you have determined to live _____, according to the precepts of God, then when disconcerting _____ comes, your acquired discipline—your ability to restrain _____ and temper—will help you _____ life's contingencies rather than be controlled by them.

Joseph's two legal options: 1) _____ disclosure, 2) _____ divorce

Send her away =

Joseph's Response to the Angel's News

Using an angel in a dream, God communicated the message of the divine

_____.

The following words of the angel were directly related to Joseph's faith: " _____ _____ _____."

You'll notice that Matthew didn't say that _____ would have a son.

Joseph—just like Mary—believed that nothing is _____ with God.

Joseph's Unselfish Obedience

Notes on "kept her a virgin":

He was a righteous man who kept his wife a virgin until he had God's blessing—the blessing of _____—the blessing that belongs to those who have _____ passions and kept a clear _____ before God and man.

This righteous man must have been _____ to learn that the woman he was about to marry carried a child who wasn't his.

If you have determined to live _____, according to the precepts of God, then when disconcerting _____ comes, your acquired discipline—your ability to restrain _____ and temper—will help you _____ life's contingencies rather than be controlled by them.

Joseph's two legal options: 1) _____ disclosure, 2) _____ divorce

Send her away =

Joseph's Response to the Angel's News

Using an angel in a dream, God communicated the message of the divine

_____.

The following words of the angel were directly related to Joseph's faith: " _____ _____ _____."

You'll notice that Matthew didn't say that _____ would have a son.

Joseph—just like Mary—believed that nothing is _____ with God.

Joseph's Unselfish Obedience

Notes on "kept her a virgin":

He was a righteous man who kept his wife a virgin until he had God's blessing—the blessing of _____—the blessing that belongs to those who have _____ passions and kept a clear _____ before God and man.