

Introductory notes:

The King Takes His Throne

The Lord will come with His holy _____ and all the _____.

Will sit =

Notes on the King's glorious throne:

This gathering (drawing) together is not _____.

Notes on the gathering of all people:

Will separate =

The King will identify them in the manner that a _____ intimately knows each of His _____.

The Sheep

Believers who are _____ at the Lord's coming in glory will go directly into the earthly kingdom in their earthly _____. Mingling with them and ruling over them will be the _____ saints of all ages who have come from _____ with Jesus to reign on the earth.

Blessed =

Inherit =

What I learn from 1 Pet. 1:3-5:

Believers will not _____ the kingdom based on good deeds they will have or not have _____ on earth. Their inheritance was _____ countless ages ago, even before the foundation of the world.

The _____ that the sheep belong to Him is that they obeyed Him, they loved Him, and they _____ Him.

A Christian does good _____ he is a Christian, not in order to _____ a Christian.

The _____ mentioned in these verses all deal with common, _____ needs.

The Goats

For _____, the only thing that comes naturally to them is _____ themselves.

Depart =

When He came in the _____, He called sinners _____ Him, but when He shall come again in _____, He will drive sinners _____ Him.

Jesus uses the same word to describe both _____ and condemnation...the word _____.

The _____ that those rejected people never belonged to Christ will be that they did not love and serve His _____.

The marks of "lostness" mentioned in these three parables aren't _____ sins committed but rather simple acts of _____ not committed.

Thus speaketh Christ our Lord to us, You call Me master and obey Me not, you call Me light and see Me not, you call Me the way and walk Me not, you call Me life and live Me not, you call Me wise and follow Me not, you call Me fair and love Me not, you call Me rich and ask Me not, you call Me eternal and seek Me not, if I condemn thee, blame Me not. (from the cathedral of Lübeck, Germany)
