

Introduction

Where your _____ is placed, is more _____ than whether you fight or flee a threat.

Faith or Flight?

Three Points for Context:

(1) David wasn't _____ as confident and firm in his faith as we see in Psalm 11.

(2) There are _____ when David _____ from danger.

(3) When deliverance from danger is sought through _____ strength, _____ seeking the Lord, it is distrust and a lack of faith.

There are _____ when Christians must _____ faith over flight when the wicked seek to do them harm.

Foundations =

The _____ of the _____ are built upon the moral, civil, and ceremonial laws given by God in the Torah.

David's Faith Response

The heavenly _____ and _____ speaks to God's sovereign, transcendent rule over the universe.

David does not put his trust in anything _____, but looks toward the _____, and the unseen, to something far greater.

“When we are surrounded by darkness on earth, we need to borrow light from heaven that leads to salvation.”—Calvin

To behold His face is to behold God in the fullness of His _____ and _____.

The _____ will receive the fullness of God's judgment, hatred, and wrath, while the _____ will receive the fullness of His grace, mercy, and love.