

Background Information

Scripture infers that James's father, Zebedee, was a man of _____.
His family's reputation reached from Galilee all the way to the _____ _____ household in Jerusalem.

James figures prominently in Jesus' close _____ of three.

He was privileged to witness Jesus' _____ in the raising of the dead, he saw His _____ when Jesus was transfigured, he saw Christ's _____ in the way the Lord unfolded the future to them on the Mt.
of Olives, and he saw the Lord's _____ in the garden.

The best word we can use to identify the life of James is _____.

The fact that James was the first apostle to be _____ suggests that he was not passive or subtle, but that he had a style that stirred things up.

Fire from Heaven

Passage: Luke 9:51-56

Background on the Samaritans:

Jesus had never shown anything but _____ toward the Samaritans.

Things we learn in 2 Kings 1:1-18 about Elijah calling down fire from heaven:

James and John were in effect asking Jesus to _____ them to do what they knew He would not do.

James and John had not grasped, or had forgotten, that now is the day of _____.

Jesus' example taught James that lovingkindness and _____ are virtues to be cultivated as much as righteous indignation and _____.

The Best Seats in the Kingdom

The idea for _____ bold request in Matthew 20:20-21 was almost certainly devised in the minds of James and John.

Although Jesus had explained to them several times that He was about to be crucified, James clearly did not understand what kind of _____ He meant.

James wanted _____; Jesus gave him servanthood. James wanted a place of _____; Jesus gave him a martyr's grave. James wanted to _____; Jesus gave him a sword.

James' Cup of Suffering

Acts 12:1-3 is the one place in Scripture where James appears _____.

It is significant that James was the _____ of the Twelve to be killed.

James's _____, now under the Holy Spirit's control, had been so instrumental in the spread of the truth that it had aroused the wrath of Herod.

James was right where he had always hoped to be and where Christ had trained him to be—on the _____ _____ as the gospel advanced and the church grew!
