Review

Peter's first question, "Why are you amazed at this?" is a mild _____.

Peter makes a particular point of denying any thought of _____ as a kind of manipulation of divine power.

Peter takes as the _____ of his sermon the matchless name of Jesus Christ.

By using the terms "the God of _____, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers," Peter claims continuity with the Old Testament _____, since he is declaring the same God they preached and the Messiah they _____.

Witnessing such a divine display demanded much more than _____; it demanded reverential _____.

Peter quickly moves to the event that made the _____ possible—the substitutionary death of Christ on the cross and His subsequent _____.

Pilate was ready to let Jesus be _____, but these wicked Jews demanded that Pilate punish Him on their _____.

The Unsuccessful Murder (v. 15)

Notes on Jesus as the Prince of Life:

The New Testament repeatedly describes Jesus as the _____ of life.

They put to death the _____ of life, while asking for the release of one who _____ life!

Notes on God the Father actively raising the Son from the dead:

God had to give His _____ and take the action of receiving Christ as our _____.

Jesus by His resurrection has become the one who has led the way to _____.

The Proper Object of Faith (v. 16)

faith (pistis) =

The faith in view here is not that of the _____, but of Peter and John.

The healed beggar was living proof that the nation's _____ of Jesus was wrong.

Peter boldly confronted his hearers with the _____ of their sin in executing their _____.

Only those who see themselves as _____ can recognize their need for a Savior and place genuine, saving _____ in Jesus.
