The better we grasp what the cross meant to _____, the better we will understand what the cross should mean to _____.

Jesus' Relationship to His Mother

Jesus, hanging on the cross, thought of _____.

William Barclay – “There is something infinitely moving in the fact that Jesus in the agony of the cross, in the moment when the salvation of the world hung in the balance, thought of the loneliness of His mother in the days when He was taken away.”

While Christ obeyed God the Father in His _____ of redemption, He did not fail to perform the _____ which He owed, as a _____, towards His mother.

Notes on Jesus' interactions with Mary at the wedding in Cana:

Nowhere is it recorded that Jesus ever called Mary “_____.”

From now on, believers would be _____ to Christ by a closer bond, by a _____ relationship, and this is what the Savior would now teach both His _____ and His beloved apostle.

She was not there at the cross to aid in _____ redemption, but she herself was being _____ by her Son.

Mary and John's Faithfulness to Jesus

Mary had apparently _____ Jesus from her home in Nazareth to Jerusalem for the _____.

Mary and John's Faithfulness to Jesus

Mary had apparently _____ Jesus from her home in Nazareth to Jerusalem for the _____.

Not a word that fell from Mary's lips on this occasion was _____ in any of the four Gospels: apparently she suffered in unbroken _____.

Arthur W. Pink – "Neither her own danger, nor the sadness of the spectacle, nor the insults of the crowd, could restrain her from performing the last office of duty and tenderness to her Divine Son on the Cross."

In contrast from the _____ which evidenced man's _____ and enmity, these women and John were the trophies of Divine _____.

Jesus Speaks

Arthur W. Pink – "Thus did the Redeemer give to the apostle who had leaned on His breast, the one (Mary) on whose breast He had once rested! Thus did He give to John the place which He had filled—a higher place than that which He gave to Peter! The order is indeed striking: Christ bade Mary look to John, before He commanded him to care for her—John was to be the stay of Mary, not Mary of John!"

John calls himself one "whom Jesus _____."

In commending His mother to the care of His _____ apostle, the Savior evidenced His _____ by the choice of her future guardian.

John readily _____ the command of Christ by permanently taking Mary into his _____.

So Jesus _____ Mary to John, bringing the two people who _____ Him the most together to _____ each other. Even in death, Jesus showed more concern for _____ than for Himself.

The Lord's act in this 3rd cry from the cross has forever set an _____ for children to honor their parents—to the end, not only while they are _____.

He also shows that in _____ for His people, He would do so by _____ of His people.
