

Introduction

The Scriptures reveal _____ more than any other resource that exists.

God has put such a large amount of _____ in the Scriptures on the subject of _____ so we can rightly understand how to live through it.

Protection from Injustice (1-2)

pursue =

soul (nepes) =

What or who we make our refuge _____ where we have placed our hope and trust.

Suffering has a _____ effect that induces us to _____ God more than we would have without it.

Participation in Injustice (3-5)

When we receive sinful _____ by others we should never become _____ to our own sin and contribution to the problem.

Sin will _____ you into thinking that ungodly responses are _____ when you are treated unjustly.

David's _____ for his sin while being sinned against is an example of _____.

Plea for Justice (6-12)

True justice involves the _____ of God being unleashed upon _____.

True justice involves God's _____ of right and wrong being established over a _____.

Vindicate =

True justice not only involves judgment and wrath upon the wicked but also _____ of the _____.

True justice involves _____ evil and wickedness to an _____.

Indignation =

Payment for Injustice (13-16)

_____ must take place in order for a person to be _____ from God's righteous indignation.

God's righteous _____ was satisfied for believers by pouring out His wrath upon Christ at the _____.

Praise to the God of Justice (17)

Trials cause us to seek God, which causes us to _____ Him more, and as we come to know Him more, this _____ thankfulness and praise in our lives.

If you don't have thanksgiving and praise in your trials then your God is too _____.