

Introduction

Notes on resolutions:

If a Christian is going to make a New Year’s resolution to do something _____, it ought to be one that he can back up with _____.

A believer’s one measurement of a year ought to be the question: “Am I more _____ at the end of this year than I was at the beginning?”

Putting the Past Behind Us

1 Thess. 4:3 says that the will of God and goal for every believer is our _____.

Desire =

Any genuine convert realizes he or she is at _____ with sin.

We often look at resolutions as a way to set down a new rule or law by which we try to make ourselves _____ in our own _____.

Typically, we make resolutions regarding stopping particular _____. Notes:

Put the past behind you by ceasing to _____ past sins in your prayers.

Putting the Present and Future Before Us

Stopping—_____—certain sinful behavior is only the first half of God’s solution for _____...we must also intentionally put on new, godly _____.

Gal. 5:22-23 tell us what we should resolved to pray for:

Introduction

Notes on resolutions:

If a Christian is going to make a New Year’s resolution to do something _____, it ought to be one that he can back up with _____.

A believer’s one measurement of a year ought to be the question: “Am I more _____ at the end of this year than I was at the beginning?”

Putting the Past Behind Us

1 Thess. 4:3 says that the will of God and goal for every believer is our _____.

Desire =

Any genuine convert realizes he or she is at _____ with sin.

We often look at resolutions as a way to set down a new rule or law by which we try to make ourselves _____ in our own _____.

Typically, we make resolutions regarding stopping particular _____. Notes:

Put the past behind you by ceasing to _____ past sins in your prayers.

Putting the Present and Future Before Us

Stopping—_____—certain sinful behavior is only the first half of God’s solution for _____...we must also intentionally put on new, godly _____.

Gal. 5:22-23 tell us what we should resolved to pray for:

Our resolve must be on what the Lord says should be our _____ and _____ ways of life...not the ways of the _____.

Laws are in place to restrict sin, that's why there are no laws against the _____.

As believers, we are free to ask for these because we have the freedom to _____ them!

Once we have dealt with our past sins—through confession, repentance, and restitution—then we are to _____ by working out our salvation.

Phil. 4:8-9 tells us some specific things we should set our minds on:

The Lord tells us to look _____, setting our minds on becoming like Him.

Scripture does not tell us to work out our sins, but to work out our _____.

Excerpts from Jonathan Edwards' 70 resolutions:

#4 – Resolved, never to do any manner of thing, whether in soul or body, less or more, but what tends to the glory of God; nor be, nor suffer it, if I can avoid it.

#5 – Resolved, never to lose one moment of time; but improve it the most profitable way I possibly can.

#7 – Resolved, never to do anything, which I should be afraid to do, if it were the last hour of my life.

#10 – Resolved, when I feel pain, to think of the pains of martyrdom, and of hell.

#33 – Resolved, always to do what I can towards making, maintaining, establishing and preserving peace, when it can be without over-balancing detriment in other respects.

#52 – I frequently hear persons in old age say how they would live, if they were to live their lives over again: Resolved, that I will live just so as I can think I shall wish I had done, supposing I live to old age

Things I am resolved to ask the Lord to cultivate in me:

Things I am resolved to ask the Lord to set my mind upon:

Our resolve must be on what the Lord says should be our _____ and _____ ways of life...not the ways of the _____.

Laws are in place to restrict sin, that's why there are no laws against the _____.

As believers, we are free to ask for these because we have the freedom to _____ them!

Once we have dealt with our past sins—through confession, repentance, and restitution—then we are to _____ by working out our salvation.

Phil. 4:8-9 tells us some specific things we should set our minds on:

The Lord tells us to look _____, setting our minds on becoming like Him.

Scripture does not tell us to work out our sins, but to work out our _____.

Excerpts from Jonathan Edwards' 70 resolutions:

#4 – Resolved, never to do any manner of thing, whether in soul or body, less or more, but what tends to the glory of God; nor be, nor suffer it, if I can avoid it.

#5 – Resolved, never to lose one moment of time; but improve it the most profitable way I possibly can.

#7 – Resolved, never to do anything, which I should be afraid to do, if it were the last hour of my life.

#10 – Resolved, when I feel pain, to think of the pains of martyrdom, and of hell.

#33 – Resolved, always to do what I can towards making, maintaining, establishing and preserving peace, when it can be without over-balancing detriment in other respects.

#52 – I frequently hear persons in old age say how they would live, if they were to live their lives over again: Resolved, that I will live just so as I can think I shall wish I had done, supposing I live to old age

Things I am resolved to ask the Lord to cultivate in me:

Things I am resolved to ask the Lord to set my mind upon: