

Obeying God Rather Than Men (Acts 5:27-32) 10/8/23

Review

The world respects our _____, but despises our message.

Luke was evidently indicating the full weight of _____, legal, and religious _____ being brought to bear against the apostles.

Notes on the leadership involved:

_____ was the motive behind the Jewish leaders' antagonism toward the church.

God sent an angel to _____ and recommission the apostles.

God, through His angel, told them to _____ rulers who had overstepped their bounds as _____ of the state.

The apostles chose to _____ obey and leave the consequences to God.

God wanted the Jewish leaders to be completely bewildered that every _____ they tried to stop the apostles _____.

The Jewish leaders had been humiliated by their _____ to stop these men by the authority vested in their _____.

The High Priest's Charge (vv. 27-28)

Notes on the setting in the Council:

Conspicuously _____ from the high priest's charges is any mention of the apostles' _____ escape from prison.

gave strict orders (parangelio) =

Their biggest _____ was for the apostles to presume to speak as if they had authoritative _____ on the subject of salvation, or that _____ had given them authority.

What their expression "_____ Jerusalem" meant is that everywhere they turned, the subject of _____ was dominating the conversation.

Their claim is that the apostles secretly desire to make them _____.

Notes from Matthew 27:24-26 on what the leaders failed to acknowledge:

The Apostles' Stand (vv. 29-32)

The apostles were _____ in their opposing response.

Once again, as in 4:19, Peter placed the Sanhedrin in _____ to God.

we must (dei) =

Although the apostles did not _____ arrest and acknowledged the right of the Sanhedrin to _____ them, they could not deny God's _____ commission.

Peter emphasizes that all the determinative _____ was God's from start to finish: He _____ Jesus, He _____ Jesus, He has _____ the Spirit.

Peter persistently, fearlessly _____ the offense for which the Sanhedrin had just _____ the apostles.

The authorities on the _____, like everyone else in Israel who had _____ Jesus, needed to acknowledge His true _____ and their need of the _____ being offered to them.

The chief _____ to Jesus Christ is the Holy Spirit.

_____ is the key and sign to whether we have God the Spirit in us and with us.

Obedience is synonymous with _____.