

Saul's Calling (Acts 9:10-16)

4/28/24

Review

Notes on Saul of Tarsus:

Persecuting Christians _____ him; it had become his whole life.

Repeating Saul's name was a matter of emphasis marking a _____ of Saul, and intended to bring _____ of soul, so Saul would realize how wrong he had been, and _____ would overwhelm him.

Jesus equates persecuting the _____ with persecuting _____.

God always initiates the contact in _____.

The question in salvation is not whether Jesus is _____, but whether we are submissive to His _____.

During his _____, God led Saul through the process of _____ everything he was and did.

Ananias's Assignment (vv. 10-12)

Notes on Ananias:

Notes on Ananias's response, "Here I am, Lord!":

Notes on the lead up to Saul's encounter with Jesus:

Prayer is the _____ in which Saul needed to be.

Prayer is the spontaneous _____ of the believing heart to God.

By using the means of a _____, with very specific instructions, the Lord reassured both men of His _____ in the situation.

Ananias' assignment is to be the _____ and mouthpiece of the risen Lord.

Ananias's Concern (vv. 13-14)

Ananias needed _____, and boldly approached the Lord.

Another new name for the followers of Jesus is used for the first time: _____

Saul had done much intentional _____ to the church and Ananias would surely be his next _____ if the Lord did not protect him.

It's OK to ask the Lord _____, to come to Him with our fears, to be honest with Him about our _____.

The best way to deal with someone's doubts and fears is to _____ on what the _____ says.

Jesus's Plan for Saul (vv. 15-16)

chosen (ekloge) =

instrument (skeuos) =

to bear (bastazo) =

It would be the _____ of Jesus for which Saul was selected to be the _____ that he would carry all over the Mediterranean world.

suffer (pascho) =

The persecutor will become the _____ and suffer like Jesus Himself.

Cross references and notes on Saul's suffering: