*In the Shadow of the Cross;
Biblical Servanthood
John 13:1-17*

Opening statement:

Following the Lord Jesus Christ is an individual matter, but it is not an individualistic one.

John 13:35 “By this (love) all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

An individual relationship with Jesus inspires humble service to others, honoring God instead of seeking praise for ourselves.

This passage provides a vivid illustration of the real purpose behind Christ's first coming: to serve others for the Glory of the Heavenly Father.

I. Biblical servanthood originates from a heart that loves. – (John 13:1)

II. John shows how far our Lord was willing to go to serve. – (John 13:2-5)

III. A call to those who have known our Lord's love through His _____.
– (John 13:12-17)

Application:

The blessing of our Lord Jesus Christ comes to those who walk in _____
_____ to the Lord's instructions.

The key to walking in this daily obedience is daily _____ and
_____ to fulfill the Father's will in our lives.

Listen Closely:

God's will for our lives can be summed up in this statement from the first question and answer found in the Westminster shorter Catechism...

What is the chief end of man?

Man's chief end is to _____ God, and to _____ Him forever.

_____ our Heavenly Father is our Call, and that is
_____ when we walk in obedience to Him and His Word.
