Source of the Believers
Hope
Colossians 1:1-8

_____ – to cherish a desire with anticipation; to want something to happen or be true; to desire with expectation of obtainment or fulfillment; to expect with confidence.

– Merriam Webster

_____ – is a confident expectation and firm assurance of future good based on God's promises and character, not a mere wish. It is a "living hope" rooted in the resurrection of Jesus Christ and is an anchor for the soul that provides certainty and security, even in difficult times. This hope is not passive; it's an active and enduring virtue that leads to joy, peace, and bold living.

We could say the difference between worldly hope and biblical hope is its _____.

Worldly hope is derived from fallen _____, _____ or _____.

Biblical hope is based on the perfect and sinless Son of God, _____.

In our text today, the Apostle Paul reminds these believers and us, of this object of true and lasting biblical hope...

I. Paul's _____ to the Colossians. – (Colossians 1:1-2)

II. Paul's _____ for the Colossian believers was directed toward the correct object. – (Colossians 1:3-4)

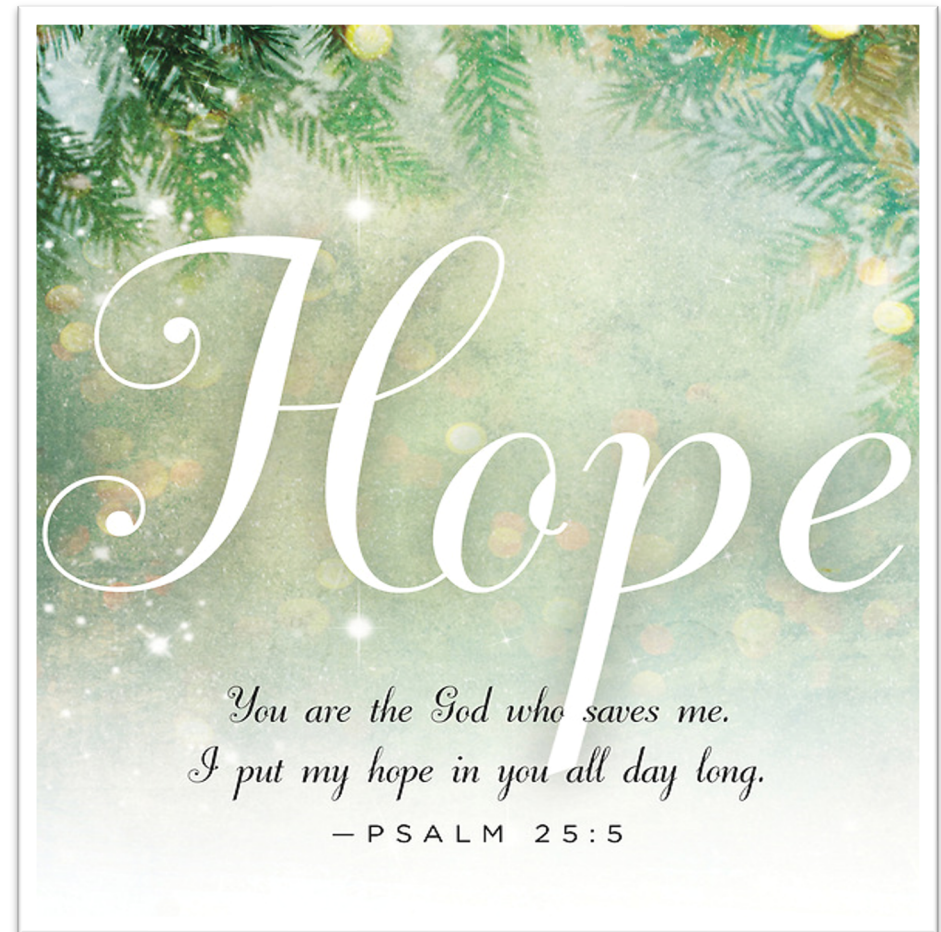

III. The Colossian believers' _____ was _____ by the right object. – (Colossians 1:5-8)

Closing/Application

What is your _____ in today?

If it is not in _____ and _____ alone, you are going to be continually disappointed in this life.

Also remember, when our _____ is in _____, that does not mean we are immune from the attacks of the enemy. That is when the enemy ramps up his attacks even _____.
