Reasons Believers Should Give Thanks

Luke 18:35-43

_____ – kindly or grateful thoughts; an expression of gratitude; appreciation of benefits received.

Over the next few weeks, we will focus on a few reasons followers of Christ should be _____.

Setting for our text: Jesus is nearing Jerusalem for his final earthly time.

MacArthur shares, “the events in Jericho provide the last _____ light before the _____ of Christ’s suffering begins.”

I. The blind man’s _____ of Jesus. – (Luke 18:35-39)

II. The Savior’s _____ to this blind man. – (Luke 18:40-42)

III. The spiritual _____ of a life touched by the Savior.
– (Luke 18:43)

Closing/Application

1.) This blind man _____ all of us who were/are _____ in our sins.

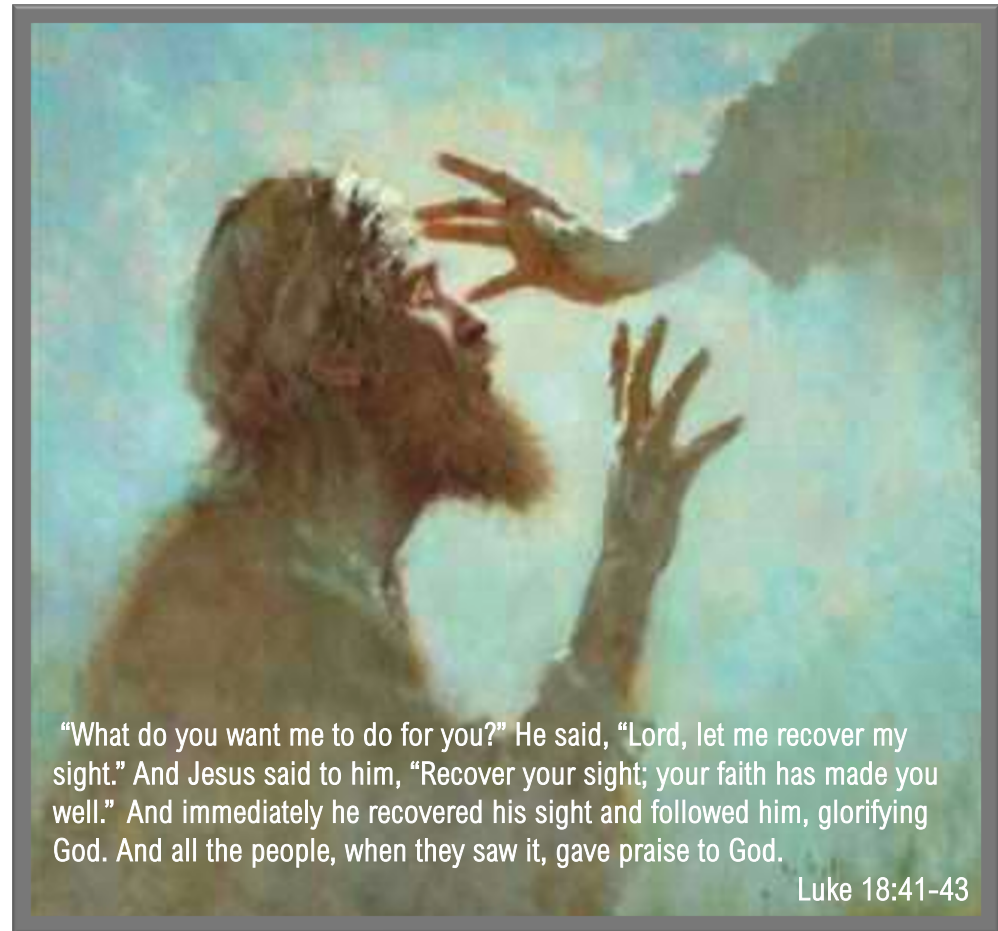

2.) The only _____ for our blinded eyes to be opened was/is the _____ stopping and drawing us near.

3.) Our expected spiritual response as believers is to _____ and _____ our Lord’s goodness even in dark and dreary times.

Closing Questions to consider:

1.) Are you allowing your _____ or _____ to dictate your thankfulness?

2.) Are you moved by the Savior’s presence in your life to _____ and _____ Him no matter what season you might be in presently?
