Believing in the Faithfulness of God

Many people struggle with whether God will actually come through for them. Life is full of disappointments, delays, and people who let us down. But there is one truth that does not change: God is faithful. Understanding what that means, and how to align your faith with His promises, can completely transform the way you pray and the way you live.

Does God Still Show Up Today?

Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever. He has simply moved from the seen into the unseen. The same Jesus who walked the earth, who healed the sick and set captives free, is present and active right now. He has not changed, and neither have His promises.

Mark 11:24 puts it plainly: "Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them." - Mark 11:24

Notice the word "whatever." God does not give us a narrow category of things He is willing to provide. He simply says, ask. The only qualification for receiving is believing.

Why Do People Overcomplicate Prayer?

Religion complicates what God made simple. The enemy is behind much of that confusion. He tries to make approaching God feel difficult and make receiving from God feel impossible. But Jesus already did the hard part. He did what we could not do. Our job is to believe and receive, not to strain and strive to make things happen on our own.

God wants to bring things to pass in your life. Let Him. He is faithful to do it.

What Does It Mean That God Is "Faithful and True"?

Revelation 19:11 gives Jesus a specific name: "Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war." - Revelation 19:11

That is who He is. Not just powerful, not just loving, but faithful and true. When people let us down repeatedly, we can start projecting that same unreliability onto God. But He is nothing like that. His word means something. When He says He will do something, He does it.

Should Christians Be on the Defensive or the Offensive?

Too many believers are constantly on the defensive, backing away from the enemy and waiting until things get desperate before they cry out to God. But that is not the posture Scripture calls us to.

Jesus said we would tread upon serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing would by any means harm us. That is the language of someone advancing, not retreating.

Think about the second generation of Israelites entering the promised land. They did not wait for the enemy to attack them. They advanced. They drove back the enemy and possessed the land. Those enemies are a picture of the spiritual opposition we face today. It is time to go on the offense, in prayer and in faith, and take back what belongs to you.

Why Does Speaking Your Faith Out Loud Matter?

Many people pray silently, keeping everything in their heart. But faith requires both the heart and the mouth. Romans 10:8-10 makes this clear:

"But what does it say? 'The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart' (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." - Romans 10:8-10

When Jesus taught His disciples to pray, He said, "When you pray, say..." You have to speak. A silent prayer produces a silent answer. Faith in the heart is only half of the equation. It must come out of your mouth.

Second Corinthians 4:13 confirms this: "And since we have the same Spirit of faith, according to what is written, 'I believed and therefore I spoke,' we also believe and therefore speak." - 2 Corinthians 4:13

How Do You Hold On When the Answer Hasn't Come Yet?

Hebrews 10:23 says: "Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful." - Hebrews 10:23

Once you have asked and believed you received, you do not keep asking for the same thing over and over. That would actually reveal that you never believed you received it in the first place. Instead, you hold fast to the confession. You keep thanking God. You keep declaring what His Word says. You stay in faith.

Think about ordering food at a restaurant. You place the order, you pay, and you wait confidently. You do not demand to see the food before you pay. You trust the process. How much more can you trust the One who is Faithful and True?

What If There Are Delays?

The enemy knows that if he can create a delay, most people will become discouraged and give up. That is his strategy. But delays are not denials. God is not holding anything back from you. Sometimes the issue is that you are not yet strong enough in faith to take hold of what He has promised.

Think of a child who wants something on a high shelf. The item is there. It is available. But the child cannot reach it yet. As the child grows, they can take hold of it. In the same way, as you continue to confess God's Word and pray in the Spirit, your faith grows. You are building yourself up to receive what you already believe you have.

Jude 1:20 says: "But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit." - Jude 1:20

Every time you speak God's Word, every time you pray, you are charging your faith. You are growing into the promise.

Is God's Timing an Excuse for Unbelief?

There is a difference between trusting God's process and hiding behind "His timing" as a reason not to believe. God is the great I AM, not the great I Was or the great I Will Be. He is present tense. He is now. Scripture says, "Now is the acceptable time. Today is the day of salvation." That includes healing, deliverance, and every promise He has made.

Believe you receive now, because that is where He is.

What Does God's Faithfulness Look Like Every Morning?

Lamentations 3:22-23 says: "Through the Lord's mercies we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness." - Lamentations 3:22-23

Every single day is a fresh start. You do not have to wait for a new year. Yesterday's doubt and unbelief does not disqualify you today. His mercies are new every morning. He does not give up on you, even when you have acted foolishly. He says, get up, and let's go together.

Can God Guard You From the Enemy?

Second Thessalonians 3:3 says: "But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and guard you from the evil one." - 2 Thessalonians 3:3

He will establish you and guard you. The enemy cannot touch what God is protecting. But this promise, like all of His promises, is received through believing and confessing. It is not automatic for everyone. It is for those who believe they receive His protection and stand on that truth.

How Do You Ask God for Bigger Things?

James 4:2 reminds us that we have not because we ask not. God cannot bring to pass what you are not asking for. If you want to advance in life, if you want bigger and better, you have to start asking for bigger and better and believing you are receiving it so God can bring it to pass.

Before you can have big things, you have to believe and receive big things. That is not greed. That is faith. God wants you to move forward. He needs you to open your mouth, ask, believe you receive, and confess it until it comes to pass.

Life Application

This week, choose one specific promise from God's Word that applies to something you need. Write it down. Speak it out loud every day. Do not keep it silent in your heart. Confess it in the morning when you wake up and before you go to sleep. If you have already asked God for something, stop asking repeatedly and start thanking Him that it is done. Hold fast to the confession of your hope without wavering, because He who promised is faithful.

Ask yourself these questions as you go into the week:

- Am I praying with genuine belief that I receive when I ask, or am I just hoping and wishing?
- Am I keeping my faith silent, or am I confessing God's promises out loud with my mouth?
- When delays come, do I hold fast to what God said, or do I quietly give up and assume it is not coming?
- Do I truly believe that God is faithful and true, or do I project the unreliability of people onto Him?
- What is one big thing I have been afraid to ask God for, and what is stopping me from asking today?

God has not changed. He is faithful and true. Whatever you ask, believe you receive it, and you will have it. That is His promise, and He always keeps His word.
