B. Study Section

Job 1:6-19, NASB -<sup>6</sup> Now there was a day when the sons of God [OT reference to unfallen angels] came to present themselves before the LORD [eg., court], and Satan [lit., "The Satan;" "Satan," a title, means adversary, enemy, hater] also came among them. <sup>7</sup> The LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?" Then Satan answered the LORD and said, "From roaming about on the earth and walking around on it." [Satan is not in hell; he is also not omnipresent] ... <sup>10</sup> "Have You not made a hedge [Notice that Satan could not negotiate the hedge God had placed around Job] about him and his house and all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. <sup>11</sup> "But put forth Your hand now and touch [lit., remove] all that he has; he will surely curse You to Your face." <sup>12</sup> Then the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power, only do not put forth your hand on him [lit., don't kill him; even his health will be taken away in Ch. 21." So Satan departed from the presence of the LORD.... In vv. 13-16, Job loses his flock, fortune, family, friends, and his fame. In ch. 2, Job even loses his health.
