A Father's Greatest Gift To His Family

Abraham was a father whose greatness lay not in what he gave his son, but in what he taught his son about God.

- A. W. Tozer

Hebrews 11:8-10, NLT -⁸ It was by faith that Abraham obeyed when God called him to leave home and go to another land that God would give him as his inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going. ⁹ And even when he reached the land God promised him, he lived there by faith—for he was like a foreigner, living in tents. And so did Isaac and Jacob, who inherited the same promise. ¹⁰ Abraham was confidently looking forward to a city with eternal foundations, a city designed and built by God.

A Father's Greatest Gift To His Family

1. A Faith That Follows God.

Hebrews 11:8, NLT -⁸ It was by faith that Abraham obeyed when God called him to leave home and go to another land that God would give him as his inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going.

Fathers don't need perfect clarity — they need obedient trust.

2. A Faith That Forms a God-Centered Home.

Hebrews 11:9, NLT -⁹ And even when he reached the land God promised him, he lived there by faith—for he was like a foreigner, living in tents. And so did Isaac and Jacob, who inherited the same promise.

Abraham lived on a temporary Earth in a tent while looking, by faith, toward an eternal spiritual inheritance.

3. A Faith That Focuses Beyond This World.

Hebrews 11:10, NLT -¹⁰ Abraham was confidently looking forward to a city with eternal foundations, a city designed and built by God.

A father's faith should shape his family's direction.
