B. Study Section

Job 1:20–22, NASB - <sup>20</sup> Then Job arose and tore his robe [a typical sign of significant grief by Jewish people of that day] and shaved his head [Jewish law outlawed the cutting of hair., cf., Lev. 21 and Deut.14; this was, however, a typical Gentile expression of grief. Theologians feel Job may have wanted everyone to know how 'broken' he was, in his grief], and he fell to the ground [ie., this demonstrated Job belonged to God] and worshipped [lit., prayed]. <sup>21</sup> He said, "Naked I came from my mother's womb. And naked I shall return there [He brought nothing into this world and he will leave with nothing from this world; a "funeral statement of the OT times" used today]. The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away. Blessed* be the name of the LORD." <sup>22</sup> Through all this Job did not sin nor did he blame God.

*Blessed (Heb. בָּרַךְ, ba-rak), means "to salute."
